Menu	Chef Knut Mjelde puts his own sophisticated spin on New Orleans classics and comfort foods, as well as creating delectably exotic dishes with the freshest local ingredients available. The dishes pay homage to traditional favorites, but present on the plate as contemporary incarnations not found anywhere else. Ralph's on the Park is a lovely location for lunch, cocktails, dinner, and Sunday brunch, and offers a number of special dining options.

Venue	The gracious, cream-colored clapboard structure housing Ralph's on the Park was built in 1860 as a coffeehouse and concession stand at the entrance to mid-city's grand old City Park. Over the past century-and-a-half, it has been occupied by some of New Orleans' most distinguished restaurateurs, and the legacy lives on in Ralph Brennan's elegant restaurant, with its serene, light-filled interior and menu of locally influenced global cuisine. Its two stories, charming balcony, and double kitchens make it a most versatile venue for private events.
Dress Code	Smart Casual
Reservations	Recommended, but not required
Private Parties	The two story, 9500 square foot restaurant includes a first-floor main dining room (100 seats) and bar (30 seats). The second-floor houses three private dining rooms (120 seats), and an exterior balcony for seasonal a la carte dining or private party cocktails. A state-of-the-art kitchen downstairs plus a banquet kitchen upstairs have been built to simultaneously service the restaurant.
Payment	Ralphs on the Park accepts cash and American Express, Visa and MasterCard.
Parking	Complimentary Valet Parking for a la carte diners
